

Taking Aim at Cancer in Louisiana: A Path to Improvement in Patient Outcomes – May 11, 2018

9 AM	Registration Light Breakfast/Coffee
9:30 AM	Welcome and Introduction: Why cancer matters and why now?	Dr. Rebekah Gee, Secretary Louisiana Department of Health
9:40 AM	Statewide Collaboration: What do we know and what have we accomplished so far?	Jonah Frohlich and Megan Ingraham, Manatt
10:00AM	Keynote Speakers: What's worked elsewhere and what is possible in Louisiana?
	Colorectal Screening/Disparate Populations:	Dr. Charles Rogers, University of Minnesota
	Breast Cancer Protocols / Collaborative Work:	Dr. Doug Blayney, Stanford Cancer Institute
10:45AM	Public Announcement	Governor John Bel Edwards Kristy Duffey, United Health Foundation
11:05AM	Break
11:15AM	Breakout Groups: Provide input on the interventions identified as well as the overall strategy.	Facilitated Group Discussions
12:00PM	Breakout Group Report Out and Next Steps	Jonah Frohlich and Megan Ingraham, Manatt
12:25PM	Closing	Dr. Rebekah Gee, Secretary Louisiana Department of Health
12:30PM	Lunch

