

Influenza Surveillance Report – September 2019

- Influenza activity increased through the month of September.
- During the month of September, the state public health laboratory identified multiple positive samples of influenza including: A/H1N1 and B/Victoria.
- Based on virologic surveillance data, B/Victoria is primarily circulating in younger children, A/H1N1 is more predominant in older children and adults.

Non-Influenza Respiratory Viruses

